Spirit Award Guidelines

Toppers Pizza of Menomonie is sponsoring the Spirit Awards and will award the winning organization 5 any size, any kind of pizza; 3 any size, and kind of Topperstix; 2 any one menu item; and 2 any soda-pop (20 once or 2 liter) gift certificates. The captain or representative of the organization can collect this prize when the winner is announced after the comedian on Friday, October 13th around 9pm

- Two or more organizations (Residence Halls and floors included) can partner-up to participate in the Spirit Award Competition
 - These organizations will be considered ONE Homecoming Group for the whole week
 - Example: ROTC and Gamma Sigma Sigma can partner up for the week – they will submit one registration form and one payment for participating in the week's activities
- No one is allowed to participate in two separate Homecoming Groups
 - Example: an individual cannot be on the roster for Sigma Sigma Sigma and South Hall- they must choose one organization for the whole week
- Any student participating in any competition must appear on the organization's roster and have a valid ID with them during activities
 - Blue Devil Productions has the right to verify student participation with an organization by asking for their I.D. at any time

- Blue Devil Productions reserves the right to disqualify any participant or organization from the Spirit Award Competition due to poor taste and/or neglect of the regulations
- Points will be updated nightly on the Blue Devil Production's website at bdp.uwstout.edu/homecoming2017
- Spirit Award winners will be announced after the comedian Friday night and the Football Game on Saturday
- Again, participants must appear on the organization's homecoming roster to participate
- The Medallion Hunt is not included in Spirit Award points

My organization and I have read and understand the above rules and agree to them.

Penny Wars

Penny Wars is a weeklong competition designed to raise money for a local charity. The goal is to have the highest positive balance at the end of the week. Jars are provided and set out each morning at the Involvement center located in the Memorial Student Center, each night they are put away to ensure safety.

Penny Wars will begin at 8am on Monday, October 9th until it ends on Thursday, October 12th at 3pm.

1. Each penny is worth one point and has as a positive effect on your jar's balance (1 penny = +1 point)
2. All other money (silver coins and bills) are counted at face value and have a negative effect on your jar's balance (1 nickel = -5 points)
 - a. Rolls of coins do not need to be broken apart
3. At the conclusion of Penny Wars the organizations will be ranked from highest point total to lowest point total
4. The organization with the highest positive value or lowest negative value will be awarded 100 points, other points received are:
